

A Structural Approach to Moral Foundations Theory

Gabi Waldhof

Hamburg University, Faculty of Business, Economics and Social Sciences, Department of Socioeconomics

Moral Value	Description of main Markers	Illustration / guiding Question
Care / Harm	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Attachment Prevent suffering, harm to mental/ physical health, life Protect the weak Emotion: Compassion	Protect & nurture the needy Is somebody's mental/physical health or life threatened?
Fairness / Cheating	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Individualist, Same hierarchical level Following the rules mutually beneficial cooperation, reciprocal altruism Emotion: (Liking)	Play tit for tat Have the rules been followed?
Loyalty / Betrayal	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> inclusion / exclusion approve of team players contributing to group's well-being against acts on behalf of self-interest, exclude traitors trust Diversity is not desired, recognize group members Equity (Social Justice) Emotion: Pride	Sacrifice heroically for our community Does this concern someone sacrificing for their group without expecting anything in return?
Authority / Subversion	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> structures group vertically in hierarchies Voluntary subordination, giving up sovereignty Authority perceived as legitimate Authority fulfils duty of their (social) position, roles Traditions, social order / boundaries Emotion: Respect	Fulfil the role of your hierarchical position Is there an authority which is perceived as legitimate?
Liberty / Oppression	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Individualist, Social detachment Decide for oneself Autonomy is moralized end in itself Negative liberty Equality, against illegitimate constraints, control Emotion: Anger	Laissez faire Could the person decide for themselves?
Sanctity / Degradation	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> signals a group's cultural boundaries avoid proximity to potential threats of diseases avoid proximity to people deviant from the perceived norm protect (keep pure) the sacred and divine Emotion: Disgust	Behave nobly, controlled, pure (in accordance with the spiritual), My body is a temple Is an action perceived to be "just" wrong?